6/07/2022	Smart Parking Limited	Real time parking data	$78,000	10.1(b) and 10.1(c)	The exemption was granted on two grounds, being that the services could only be provided by a particular supplier and that the services were additional deliveries of services provided by the original supplier intended as continuing services. The City contracts external agencies to provide data about parking bay occupancy in the city, which is collected from sensors installed in the road pavement. When this data is displayed in the external vendor's dashboard it is live to the second. This is the City's data, but it is hosted on the vendor's servers and therefore the City cannot use the data for analytics, dynamic signage and graphical understanding of the use of kerb space. The City therefore needs live access to its data from the original supplier.	Manager Smart and Sustainable Hobart	Director Connected City
26/7/2022	Jeanneret Electrical Technologies	Technical project expertise	$170,000	10.01 (b) and (c)	This exemption was granted on the two grounds that the services could only be provided by this supplier and no reasonable alternative exists and the services were also additional deliveries by the original supplier intended as	Manager Smart and Sustainable Hobart	Director Connected City

					extensions or continuing services where a change of supplier would result in a negative impact for the City. The City required a specialised consultant project manager with a high degree of familiarity with the City's IT network and technical operating environments as well as a deep understanding of microwave radio-link and underground communications services in Hobart and a technical skillset across a broad range of fields. Jeanneret Electrical Technologies (and associated communications entity, Jettech Networks) were uniquely placed for this role given their demonstrated significant experience designing and managing technical projects for the City of Hobart across specialty areas. Given this experience and intrinsic knowledge, it would be practically impossible for another service provider to demonstrate that it could provide better or even similar value for money to the City of Hobart.
