The Black Scorpions Tasmania Inc 6/1 - 25/2/2018	Refugee and Migrants' Soccer Tournament The Refugee and Migrants' soccer tournament is a 2-day soccer event that allows the newly arrived migrant youth (aged between 15 and 25) to participate in socially friendly soccer games. This tournament started 4 years ago as a bridge for newly arrived youth to build networks, connections and introduce many of the participants to the football community of Tasmania. The tournament has been run with the support of the migrant communities, players' contribution, and in-kind support of organisations such as the Hobart City Council, General Doctors Plus, TasWater and Tilford Zebras Football Club and South Hobart Football Club.	Community	$480	20/11/2017
Tasmanian Youth Orchestra 16-19/12/2017	Christmas Party at Government House The Governor of Tasmania invited school children to attend a Christmas Party hosted at Government House. TYO's training ensemble, Academy Strings, was asked to perform as part of the day's entertainment. The invited guests were predominantly low-SES communities and schools, providing them with the chance to have fun and TYO liked to support such a fantastic initiative.	Christmas	$500	24/11/2017
New Town Primary School 8/12/2017	Night on the Green A celebration of New Town Primary students' year with an outdoor Christmas themed concert. Families were invited to bring a picnic tea, rugs etc and enjoy some dinner while being entertained by class items performed on a stage. Invitations were extended to all families and school community members. Teachers and staff at NTPS worked hard with their classes in the weeks prior, to organise performances and appropriate costuming. Students wore 'free' dress when not performing and many dressed up either in Christmas outfits or national dress of their family's native country.	Christmas	$500	24/11/2017

Inscape Tas 13-21/12/2017	Carols at the Royal 'Carols at the Royal' was a series 4 x 1 hour musical performances in public areas of the Royal Hobart Hospital in the weeks leading up to Christmas. Visitors and staff moving through the entrances and clinics had the opportunity to enjoy performances of popular Christmas carols by professional musicians experienced in working in health settings. These performances enlivened a very populated area of the Hobart CBD, and enhanced a sense of community. Each performance involved a duo of musicians: Tiff Norchick, (harp, vocals) and Shelley Cusiter (guitar, harmonies); and Hannah Irawan (vocals) and Will Parcell (guitar).	Christmas	$1000	24/11/2017
Salamanca Square Inc 10/12/2017	Activating Salamanca Square with a Movie and family fun to Celebrate Christmas A family fun night was held in Salamanca Square to celebrate Christmas and to allow the local community to share in the festive spirit and some family fun. A free Christmas movie night was provided with a children's movie - Arthur Christmas - playing on the large screen TV. Available also were children's entertainment and activities to make it a memorable and fun event. This event also allowed for further promotion of the HCC Hopes and Dream wall as all those watching the movie were provided with a card to share their thoughts.	Christmas	$1000	24/11/2017
Tennis Tasmania 5-13/1/2018	Hobart International 2018 Held at the Domain Tennis Centre from 7 to 13 January 2018, the tournament celebrated its 25th anniversary of hosting some of the world's best female players. A reimagined hospitality offering at the Hobart International 2018 made it a must-see event this Tasmanian summer. From premium hospitality selections to some of Tasmania's favourite food trucks onsite, as well as family activities, animals, entertainers and a public bar with live entertainment - there was something to please all family members.	Events	$1000 in-kind	13/12/2017

Tasmanian Symphony Orchestra 3/2/2018	TSO 2018 Live Sessions at Red Square TSO Live Sessions were launched in 2016 to bring orchestral music to non-traditional classical music audiences, especially young people in their 20s and 30s, in settings where they feel comfortable. Live Sessions offers listeners repertoire that is unfamiliar and potentially challenging but intriguing and engaging. Live Sessions also extends TSO musicians: playing in smaller ensembles in pubs and on festival stages before an audience that needs to be persuaded raises the performance stakes. Live Sessions February 2018 at Red Square will welcome up to 700 Hobartians to experience and enjoy the TSO and classical music, many for the first time.	Creative Hobart	$995 cash & in-kind	10/1/2018
